

Mundo Arte

A Place to Be Creative

Mundo Arte strives to provide a space where children can develop their creativity and become more sensitive towards the world and the people that surround them. It gives them the freedom to express themselves according to their personalities, ages, experiences and needs without having to conform to any rules, desires or tastes imposed by adults.

The children will not be pressured to produce anything specific, nor will they be influenced to copy any person, teacher or artistic language. In contrast, they will be encouraged to take risks, to experiment, and to explore new techniques.

By discovering their own means of expression, the children add to their self-esteem. This has important positive consequences in areas such as problem-solving, tolerance, self-control and teamwork, all of which help in their education and future life prospects. Furthermore, classes will incorporate both English and Spanish spoken instruction. The use of both languages will add to the value proposition of the class because young students will be exposed to a second language, while exploring the creative sides. The ability to multiple-task is a valued skill enhanced with the bi-lingual approach to instruction.
